Somewhat unusual is the suggestion made by one of my friends. He declares that the way to run this government would be to attach a special ballot to the income tax form, and to require all tax payers to list the projects for which government should spend tax money.

On the other side of the form should be listed all the things for which funds should not be spent. The treasury department could put the answers on the computers which are supposed to be watching over our tax returns, and then by pressing a button, the nation's leaders could have a direct instruction from the taxpayers.

It is an interesting idea, but I'll bet it wouldn't work. Most people would vote for spending money on themselves, and saving money on others.

There who tried to figure out which of the small town experiences did not apply to me last week failed to win the prize. Not many were interested enough to enter, I must admit, but no one guessed that I can't sing and never did learn to play a ukelele.

If you want to be reasonable about politics, you might apply this one rule. Instead of worrying about whether it is better for your candidate to have been born rich, married a rich wife, or to have gotten a fortune through some effort of his own, or that of his wife, consider the important question.

Which man will make the best president?

All serious candidates for the presidency in recent years have been wealthy — and it is almost impossible for a poor man to make the race. This may not be right, but it is the situation.

Hondo is feeling better with the upsurge in employment at Hayes International.

It would be still more valuable to the local economy if there were some way to house the workers who have joined the firm in recent weeks. Private investors do not find rental housing a good gamble, evidently, and many of the workers are living in San Antonio and commuting to Hondo. Others have had to find housing in nearby towns.

From the Rockdale Reporter comes this interesting paragraph.

"Man wakes up in the morning, after sleeping under an advertised blanket, on an advertised mattress; takes off advertised pajamas; takes a shower bath in an advertised tub; shaves with an advertised razor, washes with advertised soap, powders his face with advertised powder, dons advertised underwear, hose, shirt, shoes, suit, handkerchief; sits down to a breakfast of an advertised cereal, drinks advertised coffee; puts on an advertised hat; lights an advertised cigar; rides to his office in an advertised car on advertised tires . . . and refuses to advertise his own business on the grounds that advertising does not pay.

"If your business isn't good enough to advertise, advertise it for sale."

Council Awards Hall Contract

Contract for construction of a new city hall was awarded Tuesday night to Carlisle and Carlisle of Uvalde. Amount of the contract is $96,794, with building scheduled for completion in 180 calendar days after the work order is given. Jack Graves and Associates, architects, stated that construction would probably begin about the first of September with March 1, 1965 as the tentative completion date.

In the special Council meeting called for the opening of bids, four were submitted and opened in this order with the original base bid figures as shown: Carlisle and Carlisle, $163,608; Kunz Construction Company, $107,680; T. J. Pettit, $105,950; W. D. Ryland, $116,420.

Each bidder submitted a list of deductions covering various alternates. Included in these were variances covering such items as the omission of asphalt paving and base, concrete sidewalks, specifications in vault structure, quality of acoustical ceilings, and grades of ceramic and other flooring.

The Council voted to take most of the alternate deductions and the Carlisle and Carlisle bid, as adjusted thereby, figured the accepted total of $96,794.

The same Uvalde contractors and architects are presently building the new Hondo Post Office.

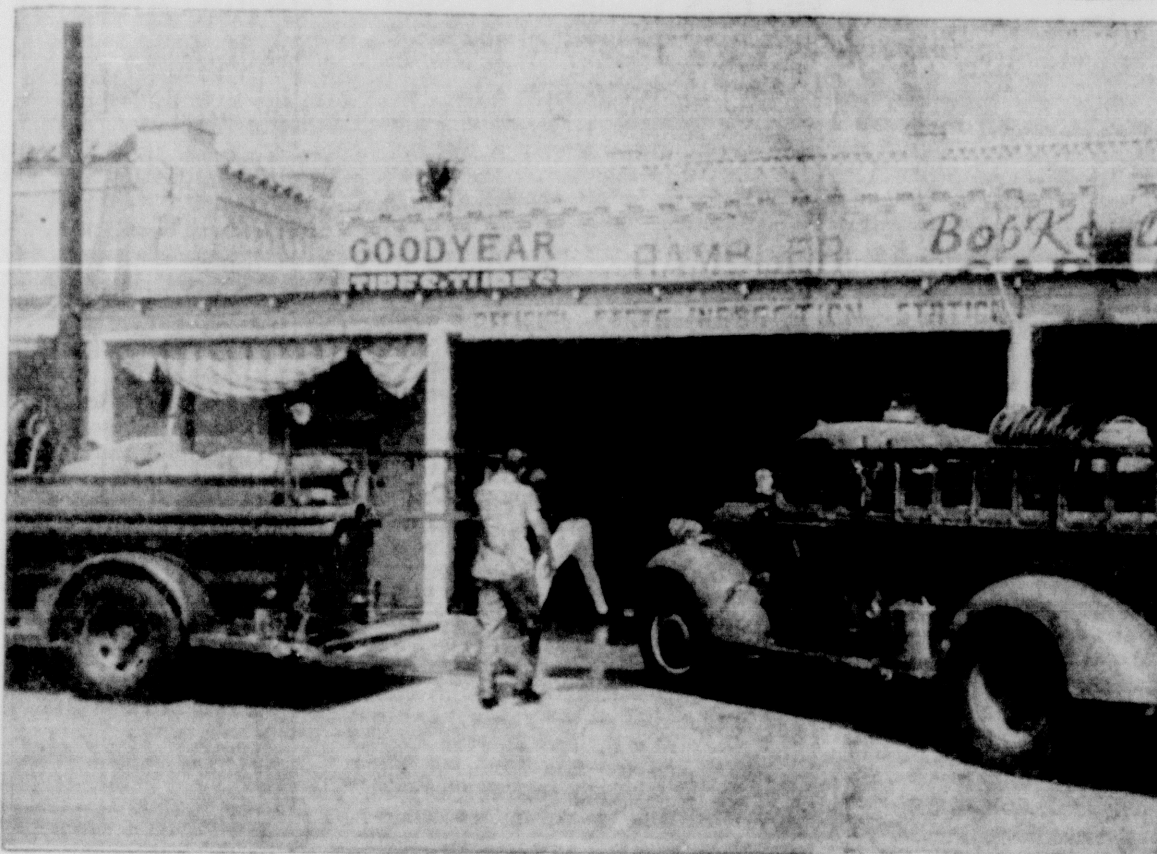

The Council meeting had been called for the specific purpose of opening the bids and no other business was transacted. Present at the Tuesday night meeting were Mayor Al Schiffer, Councilmen Marvin Schwiers, Bob Kollman, G. P. Chapman, Jerome Decker, Secretary Faye Walker, and Fritz Leinweber, director of public works.

Also present were representatives of the four competing bidders.

ST. LOUIS DAY IS SUN., AUG. 23

Koenig Park, Castroville, will be the scene of much activity Sunday when the community observes its traditional annual St. Louis Day celebration.

Preparations have been made to take care of the record crowds which grow larger each year. An advertisement giving full details, appears on page 2B of this issue.

Beet Growers Plan Research

In a Uvalde meeting Monday, attended by 68 representatives from a 13-county area, the group adopted a two-year program of research "on their own."

Several research specialists were also present at the meeting. Elected president of the group of permanent officers of the Sugar Beet Development Council was Henry Van De Walle of San Antonio. Other officers include E. A. Gittinger Jr., San Antonio, executive vice-president and general manager of the San Antonio office; Les LaFerre and Clint Bracher, both of Uvalde, as first and second vice-presidents; Alvin B. Voss, Pearlsall, secretary; and Charles Ward, Brackettville, treasurer.

Counties represented are Medina, Atascosa, Bexar, Comal, Dimmit, Frio, Hays, Kinney, LaSalle, Maverick, Uvalde, Wilson, and Zavala. Future meetings are planned in Pearlsall, Crystal City and Jourdanton. Joe Boyd of Devine is among a committee of five to draft a charter for the organization.

Last week a sugar beet grown by Henry Van De Walle was on display in the Hondo National Bank. It was about 15 inches long. A card gave the information that such beets yield 28 tons per acre and have a sugar content of 15 per cent.

MCAEC To Have Sales Booth For Hondo Day

So successful was last year's project that the Medina County Association for Exceptional Children is planning to have a sales booth again this year for the big Hondo Day celebration at City Park on Monday, September 7.

Needed are contributions of saleable items. Mrs. Laura Windrow, finance chairman, appeals to everyone interested in the welfare of our community's exceptional children to contribute gifts of novelties, handmade items, jams, jellies, preserves, canned goods, pickles, or anything which can be offered for sale.

"Last year, we had a lot of help from a group of girls who made soap sachets and other items which found ready sale," said Mrs. Windrow. "This is a community project and proceeds will go to the MCAEC operational fund."

Mrs. Windrow says she will be glad to answer any inquiries or make suggestions for items needed.

Young Americans Study Conditions In Germany

By Buzzy Meyer

(Editor's Note: Ferd C. Meyer Jr., was one of a group of ten in the Youth and Student Activities Division of 100 Americans who toured Germany July 12-26 as guests of the Federal Republic of Germany. He has reported his impressions of the visit in this story for the Anvil Herald.)

The invitation to visit the Federal Republic of Germany read "to observe first-hand the results of American aid in the form of the Marshall Plan." Our area of interest was youth and student affairs. To keep from dwelling on the dry facts of money spent and buildings built, I would rather reflect on my impressions of the Federal Republic of Germany.

FOUR AREAS

These impressions are divided into four significant areas which I think cover the most important ones we observed. First, our impressions of the German educational system and German youth. Second, the great reconstruction of Germany and the credit due the present generation. Third, the history making unity of Europe and the economic unity of the common market. Finally, but not least, the free city of Berlin and its great significance to the world as the living proof of what the ideologies of communism and democracy mean to the world. There were many sidelights to our trip, some which brought back thoughts of the Nazi era, which were discussed freely with the Germans and gave us an indication of current German thought about the past.

EDUCATION

The German educational system requires a minimum of eight years to be spent at a full-time school. In general, the system tends to emphasize vocational training. Very few students, by comparison, pass on to the German high school. Instead, they attend a vocational school where they learn to be craftsmen. The German higher education system faces the same problems our system does, in the lack of finances and in the lack of space and teachers. However, this lack of a formal higher education in Germany does not concern the German government as much, due to the excellent vocational system.

HIGHER EDUCATION

The German higher education has been traditionally reserved for the aristocratic academic family, and although these lines are tending to be broken, there is still the traditional approach to higher education.

The German child is expected to make a decision as to his future at age 14, or 1 should say, it is made for him by virtue of the requirement of an examination. This determines his advancement in the formal education system which is extremely difficult.

CRAFTS AND TRADES

We visited many schools where children are engaged in a craft and only spend one day a week in school. We also visited pure trade schools where children attend class all week. If one word would sum up the vocational school system, it is variety. The child has many avenues of development open.

It is undoubtedly true that the United States could well solve many of its unemployment problems through the vocational high school system. This is due to the fact that it would give the child who does not or cannot attend a formal school the opportunity to have a skill.

Band Boosters To Meet Friday

Hondo Band Booster President, E. J. Williams, has called a meeting of all band parents (Owl Band, "B" Band, and Beginner Band) for Friday night, Aug. 21, beginning at 7:30. The air-conditioned meeting room in the new high school building is to be scene of the meeting.

Williams emphasized that parents of all age band students should feel their obligation to attend, for every student benefits from Band Booster projects. Last year the Boosters bought an electronic tuner as their main purchase, but many other items were also added to the band inventory as a result of money-making projects.

Operating the concession stands at football games is the largest source of income, and Williams says that the personnel to handle the stands this year has been fairly well organized. "The more profit these stands are able to make, the more we can do for the kids," Williams said, as he once again urged parents and band friends to be present Friday night.

Birthday Party Will Honor LBJ

A Hondo LBJ Homecoming Birthday Party will honor President Lyndon B. Johnson Saturday, August 29, at 5 a.m., in the Stonewall Rodeo Arena, near the LBJ Ranch.

The Hondo Club Executive is expected to fly home to the LBJ Ranch for a few days rest following the National Democratic Convention in Atlantic City next week, and he and Mrs. Johnson have given every assurance that if at all possible they will be present for the big party.

The birthday party is being planned by the Gillespie County Democratic Executive Committee, who plan the event as a means of showing the President and the world that they are solidly behind their native son's bid for a four-year term to the presidency.

Tickets to the barbecue, which will open the Birthday Party, are being sold at $2.50 each and are available to all who wish to attend.

The tickets, however, should be bought in advance and may be purchased at the Security Bank and Trust or the Fredericksburg National Bank in Fredericksburg; or at the Stonewall Motel and Restaurant in Stonewall.

All of the county Democratic chairmen in the surrounding counties have been furnished tickets and will offer them to the residents of their areas.

Tickets may be ordered by mail by addressing a letter to LBJ Party, Stonewall, Texas, and enclosing $2.50 for each ticket ordered.

Committees have been named here and in Stonewall to make the arrangements for the occasion, that is to be one of the greatest political rallies in the area's history, according to Arthur Stelling, Gillespie County Democratic Chairman.

Judge Thomas Ferguson, former 33rd District Judge, currently practicing attorney in Johnson City, and a friend of the president, will be the speaker at the party.

Musical selections will be furnished by Bill Austin, well-known Austin organist, and other entertainment is being planned.

The birthday party in Stonewall will come two days after the President's actual birthday, that falls on August 27, and will be marked with a great party on Thursday at the climactic event of the National Democratic Convention.

Good News For Broom Corn Men

The following letter to Mayor Al Schiffer, dated August 12, 1964, and signed by Congressman Joe M. Kilgore, 15th District, Texas, should be of interest to the growers of broom corn in Medina County:

"Yesterday the House of Representatives passed and sent to the Senate, HR 5983, as amended by the Ways and Means Committee, to amend the Tariff Act of 1930 with respect to the rate of duty on brooms made of broom corn.

"You may be confident I'll do my best to try to get the Senate to act on this bill prior to the adjournment, and I'll let you know when further action may be taken."

No Kidding, Our Classified Do Sell Goats

Lewis Boehle has added his name to the growing list of satisfied Anvil Herald Classified Ad users. Recently, he advertised for sale some registered Angora bucks of the same grade as advertised in Sheep and Goat Raisers magazine.

Tuesday, Mr. Boehle came in to tell us that the ad had produced such good response that he had only four of the Angoras left to sell. A new ad giving details appears in the classified section of this week's issue.

If you want to "get" at least one of Mr. Boehle's goats, call him.

Football Season Tickets On Sale

Season tickets for the Owls' home football games may be reserved now by phoning the superintendent's office. There will be six home games, and a season's reservation will cost six dollars per seat. Holders of season tickets will be allotted the same seat in case the Owls should get into the state playoffs and play on Barry Field.

Persons who held season tickets last year will be assigned the same seats this year. If you had season tickets last year, or do not want them this year, or want to change locations, please call the superintendent's office at once.

Season tickets may be picked up at the City Utility Office, beginning on Monday morning, August 24.

Tickets for individual games will go on sale each Monday morning prior to that particular week's game. Tickets to the Del Rio game will go on sale on August 31.

City Authorizes Plans For New Sewer Plant

In their regular monthly meeting held Wednesday night, August 12, the Hondo City Council authorized the engineering firm of Lodal and Sueltenfuss Inc., San Antonio, to proceed with plans to apply for a Federal grant toward financing cost of a new sewer plant and sewage disposal system for the City of Hondo. Total cost of the project is not to exceed $75,000, according to estimates submitted to the Council.

Federal funds will cover 30 per cent of the cost. Surplus funds of the City's Water Department will be used and any balance will come from current funds. No bond issue is anticipated, according to Mayor Al Schiffer and City Attorney Hugh Meyer.

Other matters disposed of in the August 12 meeting included: Approval of the purchase of three new transformers needed for the building of the new post office. These are to cost $577.19 each, based on the lowest of six bids considered. Another purchase approved for the electrical department was that of a new insulated safety ladder at a price of $418.

The Council elected John Poerner as assistant director of public works. Ralph Chaney appeared before the Council to submit plans and a request for the operation of a trailer park through a lease arrangement with the City on city-owned land.

A group of several property owners with acreage outside the city limits requested consideration of making city water available to them. They were told that the city would not extend its water mains but were promised an investigation and later report of some feasible solution if it could be worked out.

Ralph Jones, Chamber of Commerce president, spoke before the Council on pending plans for the hiring of a full-time manager for the City of C. Some discussion followed regarding the legality of the City's participation in sharing the expense of such a program. No action was taken but the Council agreed to look into the matter more fully after the City supplied certain additional details which they felt were needed.

Present for the August 12 meeting were Mayor Al Schiffer, Councilmen G. P. Chapman, Jerome Decker, R. L. Kollman, Department Heads W. F. Gaudian, and John Britsch, Secretary Faye Walker, John Poerner, and Hugh Meyer.

Also present were O. T. Lodal and Henry Bain, professional engineers, and a group of about eight visitors.

SHERIFFS

DROWNING

Saturday, Aug. 15, 1964 at 5:45 p.m., H. F. Freeland of 1001 20th Street, Hondo, reported that he and his family had been at the Hondo river, nine miles from Hondo on highway 173, when he saw something floating in the water under the bridge. He came to the Sheriff's Office and reported the incident, saying that it looked like a human body.

Sheriff Hitzfelder, Deputy Chaney and Freeland went to the Hondo river bridge and investigated. They found a human body in the water. After getting it out, it was identified as that of Calletano Santos, age 49 from Hondo.

The body was taken to the Robert B. Green Hospital by order of the County Judge and a post mortem examination was conducted by Dr. Ruben Santos, Jr., Bexar County Medical Examiner. After the examination, Dr. Santos called Sheriff Hitzfelder and advised him that Calletano Santos died of a heart condition, that there was absolutely no evidence of foul play or drowning.

The Sheriff's department is investigating to determine how Santos got into the water in the Hondo creek. He had told his sister that he was going to San Antonio on Friday morning. He told her that he would go by bus. No evidence was found at the scene where the body was found showing how he was put into the water there. Santos had a wallet with five dollars and other valuables with him when he was taken out of the water.

FORGERY

Jimmy Douglas DuBose, 22 of Devine, was brought to Hondo from Augusta, Ga. by Sheriff Hitzfelder. DuBose had been apprehended in Atlanta, Ga. upon request of the Sheriff after DuBose was indicted by the Medina County Grand Jury on three counts of forgery and passing checks. Sheriff and Mrs. Hitzfelder left for Georgia August 10 and returned August 14 with DuBose.

BODY RECOVERED

A body discovered floating in the Medina Lake, early Saturday morning by Ben Benson, who was fishing along the north shore about a half a mile east of the dam, was identified as that of Pete Mata, 1312 Saunders Ave., San Antonio.

Mata age 22, was skiing in the Medina Lake near the Joe Gracieri Place at Mico, March 14, 1961, when an inner tube that he was wearing for protection got away from him and he went under water and his body was not found.

One of the men in the boat, who had loaned his swimming trunks to Mata, came to the Medina County Sheriff's Office with Mata's father, Felipe Mata, and identified the trunk as the same that he had loaned to Mata the late afternoon of the 14th of March 1961.

The friend, Elioardo Gonzales, and another man, Cistobal Paniagua, were with Mata, riding in a boat and skiing. When Mata's turn came, he borrowed the trunk from Gonzales and Paniagua operated the boat.

They say that Mata lost his balance and fell in the water. The inner tube slipped over Mata's head and he sank into the water, which at that time was about 175 feet to 200 feet deep. Divers were summoned, but they were unable to recover the body at that time because of the depth of the water and the near freezing temperature at that depth.

The body was turned over to the Hurley Funeral Home of Devine and was buried in the Devine Cemetery Monday.

D'HANIS NEWS

M&M Robert Rothe went to Floresville where they joined M&M Richard Ullman for a weekend trip to Corpus Christi and other coastal points.

Lynn Wild of Lubbock is the guest this week of the Otis Burrell family and his grandmother, Mrs. Fred Huser.

Mrs. Willie Weyand spent the weekend in SA as the guest of her son and family, the Albert Wynands.

PERSONAL APPEARANCE

by Jerry June Berger

After reading our squib in last week's column on caves and the spelunkers who explore them, Dorothy (Mrs. Leroy) Miller called us to tell about her brother, Michael Leroy, who is a cave enthusiast. The Loring family, you recall, lived here in Hondo for years while the Rev. M. J. Loring was pastor at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, and Michael as a youngster investigated the Ney Bat Caves north of town at an early age.

Dorothy says her mother has naturally taken on a few gray hairs during recent years, but that they developed faster the past few years since Michael has taken such an interest in cave explorations. Michael, who graduated from college this past spring and took himself a bride at about the same time, is president of the spelunkers club in the Georgetown area and has thereby led his members on several expeditions.

Not long ago, for instance, the highway department called for the group to explore a cave that existed right where they were to place a new highway. In order to enter, each person had to drop down 40 feet on a rope.

through a surface hole — this, of course, into total darkness except for the little carbide lights on their metal helmets. After looking the place over, they "surfaced" and the highway department decided to permanently block the entrance.

Both Michael and his wife are working in Longhorn Caverns above Granite Shoals this summer where he is official photographer. Come September, the couple plan to be in Austin where she will continue work toward a degree and where he will be employed.

School time is just over a week away, but a number of high schoolers have already been getting a taste of what is ahead.

Both the football teams and the Owl Band members have been turning out bright and early, since Monday morning, discovering where a few unused muscels have been keeping themselves through the summer months. The number of freshmen footballers and freshmen band members exceed the quantity turning out in previous years, so there is undoubtedly a lot of learning to be done by both groups before time for their first public appearances.

Getting settled for the school term in Austin are Diane and Dan Adamson, who have moved, with baby daughter Larkin, from Denver, Colo. Dan taught history the past two years in a Denver area high school, but has been assigned English in a junior high school in Austin, the same school in which young Richard Fly, son of Mrs. Dick Fly and the late Rev. Fly will be a student. Mrs. Fly also teaches in the Austin school system.

Diane and the baby were here over the weekend visiting her mother, Mrs. N. P. Pope, before going to Austin to move into their new apartment.

Two Hondo teachers are due back from an Eastern trip this weekend, in time to get ready for opening day. They are Nell (Mrs. Francis) Richter and Helen Richter, who accompanied by high schooler Ricky Richter, have been touring New York City and the World's Fair as well as the Boston area.

Several people have inquired about the round, metal plaque now adorning the front of our home. Some time ago, Mrs. Amos Finger of D'Hanis, who heads the Medina County Historical Committee, asked permission to fill out an application for this house to see if it would qualify officially as an early, authentic Texas home. The information was sent to the Texas Historical Survey Committee, headed by the former state attorney general, John Ben Shepperd.

They investigated, found it to be as represented, and the plaque so designates it. To our readers interested in early town history, we'll mention the following. This real estate first appeared on the Medina County tax roll in 1873 as the property of the late Fred Metzger, who had been operating the stage coach house out near New Fountain (now the property of Nell and Francis Richter). He began building the home here shortly after that time, doing much of the construction himself. All walls, exterior and interior, are solid brick and 14 inches thick, and the ceilings are 12 feet high, some of them with ornate designs that Mr. Metzger made. The hallway includes a hand-carved walnut staircase, also the work of Mr. Metzger, which leads to an upstairs room said to be the organization spot of the first Masonic Lodge of Hondo.

Since we purchased the place 16 years ago we have done much refinishing, wallpapering, painting, etc. but the exterior is just about as it appeared back in the nineteenth century, this being one of the basic requirements of the Historical Survey Committee.

Castroville has several of the Texas Historical Survey designated homes, but Mrs. Finger says this house is the first designated for Hondo.

When one visits the Eastern states, seeing 150 year old homes is not as unusual as 75 year old homes in Texas, so the state survey committee is trying to uncover as many as possible.

Germany...

YOUTH WELL-INFORMED
If we believe that the future of a nation lies in its youth, we all felt well satisfied with the interest and development of the German young people. We had the opportunity to meet with them on numerous occasions, both formally and informally. The German textbooks have been quite frank about the Nazi era, and the German youth are well informed about their country's past. They are all deeply interested in the reunification of Germany and the protection of their free democratic society.

We found them and their elders to be deeply fearful of Senator Goldwater and his foreign policy. This is not based, as many Americans might be led to believe, on a fear of an economic reprisals. It is based primarily on the fact that our country has control of an awesome weapon, the atomic bomb. This control lies directly in the hands of the American president and they fear Senator Goldwater's judgement, is not sound about its use.

They furthermore find it inconceivable that an American political party could nominate a man who was not in favor of the civil rights bill. The German youth have an understanding of racial hatred for they read what it did to their country. They expect that a democracy and a Christian nation such as America would remove this hatred from its society. However, they have not taken the time to trace the origins of the American racial problems.

Since America is the free world leader, we are subject to more criticisms than any other country. The typical German asks "How could a man of Senator Goldwater's views be nominated in the U. S.?" This great awareness of Goldwater was of constant amazement to me and I think its explanation can only lie in the fact that the American president can and must decide on the use of the atomic bomb.

BERLIN

In Berlin we constantly found ourselves restating to young Germans, our pledge that the isolated city will remain free. We found that many feared it would become a trading item with the communists. The wall stands as a shameful demarcation between freedom and communism. We assured them, as has our president, that America stands ever ready to fight for Berlin. This pledge is, in my opinion, the most important plank in our foreign policy.

MARSHALL PLAN

Finally, one cannot talk of Germany without mentioning the current German generation and the great credit due them for reconstruction of their war-torn country. From a gross national product of zero to a gross national product of 66 billion dollars in 1960 is a fantastic feat. The Germans feel a great indebtedness to the American people for making this possible by the way of the Marshall Plan. The Marshall Plan provided the means of financing their recovery.

One cannot help but be impressed by the great unity of Europe. We stood in Saarland at the border of France and Germany. Upon that very ground the battles of the Franco-Prussian War (1870), the First World War, and the Second World War were fought. Now standing on this blood-ground is a joint memorial to French and German soldiers. The Franco-German treaty signifies the peace that now prevails between these powers. Their economic union in the common market has created a great prosperity throughout Europe of which the Germans are rightfully proud.

WAR MEMORIES

Briefly I would mention our visit to Dachau, the site of the first German political refugee concentration camp. It is now an international memorial under the control of an international committee of former inmates. It is in the process of being completely reconstructed as an example to all the world lest they forget this horrible lesson of man's inhumanity to man. The unification of the German people by Hitler was unification based on hatred, prejudice and world domination. It is something these people will never forget since the country has felt the wages of war more than any other country due to its almost complete destruction.

July 20, 1944, the date of the attempt on Hitler's life, is now observed as a national historical date. The education of the German youth in their past seems sound, not only for the Germans, but for all people, so that man can learn the dangers of hate and bigotry as a national philosophy.

PROBLEMS — SOLUTIONS

The German government scheduled a most interesting two weeks visit. We were constantly involved in two-way conferences of common problems and their solutions. We found the Germans very frank and open. We received their criticisms and they received ours, both in a constructive manner.

We found their deepest aspirations, politically, to be the reunification of Germany. Certainly this is not a problem that can be solved this year, next year, or perhaps not in 50 years. The fact remains however, that many free Germans have relatives or friends living under a form of communist slavery.

It is not so much the lack of economic prosperity that bothers them, but simply the lack of political freedom. The divided country of Germany and the divided city of Berlin stand as what it means to live under an example to all the world of communism. Freedom, though at times intangible, is the most precious item in Germany, for these people can daily see and hear of their own countrymen who have lost their freedom.

The freedom of free western Germany is bright economically and politically. The only problem politically is reunification. The only problem economically is inflation.

Texas Rural Co-ops 'Help Build Texas'

"By the preservation and improvement of rural America, you have done so much to strengthen the free enterprise system. But political propagandists portray you as enemies of free enterprise," U. S. Senator Ralph Yarborough told nearly 800 representatives of Texas rural electric cooperatives meeting in Austin August 14.

The right of rural electric cooperatives to generate their own power was stressed by another speaker as essential to the continued development of rural areas. He is Norman Clapp, head of the Rural Electrification Administration in Washington, D. C.

Theme of the annual meeting of members of Texas Electric Cooperatives, state-wide association of rural electric co-ops, was "Helping Build Texas." And speakers agreed that this job—as it relates to rural Texas—has just begun.

"The lines to you and your fellow member-owners signify only the beginning — only the start of a new vitality for rural Texas," J. R. Cobb, general manager of Texas Electric Cooperatives, said.

"Let's say loud and clear to all the people in Texas that our rural electric cooperatives — born and raised in adversity and operating even today in areas of receding population — pledge that electric power will continue to be available in ever increasing quantities on a reliable basis, at reasonable rates through our locally-owned electric co-operatives," he urged.

Delegates to the convention responded to the Senator Yarborough's appeal for a more active interest in politics by passing a resolution calling for the publication of voting records and statements by candidates in Texas Co-Op Power, state-wide newspaper of the rural electric co-ops.

Another speaker, Bruno E. Schroeder of Austin, executive vice-president of the Texas Federation of Cooperatives, urged a new look at agriculture as an industry.

"We must look at agriculture as the giant industry that it is, and we must organize in such a way that we can have a more powerful voice — have some influence on market prices and on sources of supply," he said.

The delegates expressed strong opposition to the Supreme Court ruling requiring reapportionment of both houses of state legislature on a population basis, and they urged Congress to act "to return to and leave the question of apportionment of state legislatures for determination by the states themselves."

Jake Schuehles To Preview 1965 Ford Line

Mr. and Mrs. J. Schuehle of Jake Schuehle, Hondo Ford dealership, will be among approximately 63 area Ford dealers who will travel to New York City next week to meet with executives of Ford Motor Company and preview the entire line of 1965 Ford Division products.

In addition to previewing the vehicles at the New York Coliseum and learning Ford Division's 1965 marketing plans, the dealers and their wives will be given a special tour of Ford's World's Fair Pavilion.

Talk of Town Is Tom Turtle

Who has seen Tom Turtle? Last week Jerry Berger's Personal Appearance column told of a report made by Mrs. C. D. Sadler who had discovered a turtle near her home at the edge of town.

The turtle had a painted sign on its back reading "TOM, Hondo, Texas, July 1964."

Soon after the papers reached our Hondo subscribers, a call came from Tommy Fitzpatrick, 806 22nd Street, claiming ownership of "Tom." Tommy said that Tom Turtle had been discovered in his back yard by his mother whose name is "Termite." Tommy branded his new pet and for about a week or more Termite and Tom Turtle lived very companionably in the yard. Then Tom disappeared.

By the time Tommy read the story, Tom had also left his new living quarters near Mrs. Sadler's home. Later, another call came from Mrs. Vernon Wiemers who said that she saw the turtle near her home in the 600 block on 21st Street, where he stayed for a few days in that area before moving on again.

Apparently, Tom Turtle does not hold with the old advice to "Go west, young man!" for, according to Tommy Fitzpatrick, every time Tom strayed from his original home, he headed in an easterly direction and he appeared to be sticking to that course.

"No telling where Tom might be by now," said Tommy. "But Termite and I wish he could find his way back home."

B. S. Troop 192 Back From Camp

Five boys of Scout Troop 192 returned Saturday from seven days of camping at Indian Creek Scout Camp near Ingram. During the camp Bobby Naegelin received the Mile Swim Award, Merit Badges in Astronomy and Kowing, and completion of most First Class rank requirements.

Tenderfoot David Beard earned the Second Class rank and Astronomy Merit Badge. Second Class James Wiemers earned the Astronomy and Marksmanship Merit Badges and completed much of his First Class Requirements.

Naegelin, Beard, Wiemers and Fly were the Color-Guard on visitor's night at the flag ceremonies.

First Class Scout Henry Herrera was selected for membership in the Order of the Arrow, a national organization of outstanding scout campers. The boys were accompanied during the week of camping by Scoutmaster Ernst Graw.

Hondoans Finish Kelly Duty Tour

More than 1,000 Citizen-Airmen from 80 South Texas cities, including seven from Hondo returned to civilian life Saturday after spending two weeks of active duty at Kelly AFB in San Antonio.

The men are members of the 921st Troop Carrier Group of the 433d Troop Carrier Wing, an Air Force Reserve flying unit with headquarters in San Antonio.

Lt. Col. Harley J. Haegelin, commander of the 921st, called this year's tour, which included a five-day training mission of simulated combat situations at Hondo Air Base, "a huge success."

At the men of the 921st were released, two other Hondo members of the 922nd were reporting for their first day of their annual encampment. They will undergo similar training at Kelly AFB.

Local members of both groups are: 922nd Troop Carrier Group, A2C G. O. Hernandez and Capt. David Richmond. 921st Troop Carrier Group, Maj. Reno V. Stanga, SSGT. Guadalupe Canales, A2C Guillermo Hernandez, A2C Albert Gamboa, A2C Jerry A. Benefiel, A2C Harlan R. Wolff, and A2C Wesley A. Briffin.

Here Is The Issue Upon Which We All Can Stand With The Chief

Thoughtful men spend much of their time searching for the purpose and meaning of life.

Fortunate are the people who have a president who can give words to the ordinary man's search for purpose.

A few days ago, at the University of Michigan, President Lyndon Johnson did just that.

Here are the President's words:

"For a century we labored to settle and subdue a continent. For half a century we called upon unbounded invention and untiring industry to create an order of plenty for all our people.

The challenge of the next half-century is whether we have the wisdom to use that wealth to enrich and elevate our national life — and to advance the quality of American civilization.

"Your imagination, your initiative, your indignation will determine whether we build a society where progress is the servant of our needs, or a society where old values and new visions are buried under unbridled growth. For in your time, we have the opportunity to move not only toward the rich society and the powerful society but upward to the great society.

"The Great Society rests on abundance and liberty for all. It demands an end to poverty and racial injustice — to which we are totally committed in our time. But that is just the beginning."

"The Great Society is a place where every child can find knowledge to enrich his mind and enlarge his talents. It is a place where leisure is a welcome chance to build and reflect, not a feared cause of boredom and restlessness. It is a place where the city of man serves not only the needs of the body and the demands of commerce but the desire for beauty and the hunger for community. It is a place where man can renew contact with nature. It is a place which honors creation for its own sake and for what it adds to the understanding of the race. It is a place where men are more concerned with the quality of their goals than the quantity of their goods.

"But most of all, the Great Society is not a safe harbor, a resting place, a final objective, a finished work. It is a challenge constantly renewed, beckoning us toward a destiny where the meaning of our lives matches the marvelous products of our labor.

"In the next 40 years we must rebuild the entire urban United States. It is harder and harder to live the good life in American cities. There is the decay of the centers and the despoiling of the suburbs. There is not enough housing for our people or transportation for our traffic. Open land is vanishing and old landmarks are violated. Worst of all, expansion is eroding the precious and time-honored values of community with neighbors and communion with nature. Our society will never be great until our cities are great.

"A second place is our countryside. We have always prided ourselves on being not only America the strong and America the free but America the beautiful. Today that beauty is in danger. The water we drink, the food we eat, the very air we breathe are threatened with pollution. Our parks are overcrowded and our seashore overburdened. Green fields and dense forests are disappearing. A few years ago we were concerned about the Ugly American; today we must act to prevent an Ugly America. For once our natural splendor is destroyed, it can never be recaptured. Once man can no longer walk with beauty or wonder at nature, his spirit will wither and his sustenance be wasted."

"A third place is in the classrooms. Our society will not be great until every young mind is set free to scan the farthest reaches of thought and imagination. In many places classrooms are overcrowded and curricula are outdated. Most of our qualified teachers are underpaid, and many of our paid teachers are unqualified. We must give every child a place to sit and a teacher to learn from. Poverty must not be a bar to learning, and learning must offer an escape from poverty.

"Those who came to this land sought to build more than a new country. They sought a new world. I have come here to your campus to say that you can make their vision our reality. Let us from this moment begin our work so that in the future men will look back and say:

"It was then, after a long and weary way, that man turned the exploits of his genius to the enrichment of his life."

President Johnson has caught well the spirit and promise of the "Great Society" which is the goal of men of compassion. When the President stands on this ground, we are proud to stand with him and fight with him to build a truly great society.

SECO PHILOSOPHER EXPLAINS

Where He Gets Ideas for Letters

Editor's note: The Seco Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm discusses a personal matter this week. We guess that's what he's doing.

Dear editor:

A man out here the other day stopped me, well he really didn't stop me, I was already sitting down resting under a shade tree, and got to talking and finally said he wanted to know how I get my ideas for these letters to The Anvil Herald.

"How do you do it?" he asked. "I mean, how do you know where to start and when to quit?"

Well, I'll tell you, it's simple, and I've always found it just as easy to stop as start. You come out of the house and look around and see all the physical labor there is to do on this Johnson grass farm and confronted by that any thinking man will start thinking.

Some people don't realize we're living in critical times, have been ever since I can remember, and what's a sagging gate compared to the situation in Viet Nam? How can a man patch his roof when the Turks and the Greeks may start fighting again, not that they haven't been doing it since recorded history?

How can I be bothered about cutting weeds when at the moment I don't even know who's going to be Lyndon Johnson's running mate?

I know how to get rid of weeds, that's been discovered for hundreds of years, but who knows how to keep Russia contained?

I know some people say I ought to work harder, that the way to solve the world's problems is to start with your own, but it doesn't work out that way. Twenty-five years ago I was minding my own business and looked up to find Hitler wasn't.

Working for yourself is a fine idea, but very few people achieve the goal. Most of them, the way it looks to me, spend at least half their time working for Ford and General Motors. They have 36 months to pay for a car, then 36 more to pay for the next one. The average lifetime of the average man now is about 8 or 10 cars.

This may not explain where I get any ideas for these letters, or even if I do, but I've outlasted my sagging gate another week. It's just like the international situation. You don't solve international problems, you just out-last them.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

REMEMBER WHEN...

19 Years Ago — 1954

For the first time in its history, the Anvil Herald finds itself old enough in collected data to present in the current issue doings of Hondo folks 50 years ago. The paper is older than 50 years but available records were not kept until well along in the Anvil Herald's career.

20 Years Ago — 1944

Hondo beauty shops have announced an increase in their prices. Shampoos and sets will now be $1 and up, sets only will be 50 cents, manicures 85 cents, and prices on permanent waves will begin at $5, according to two local shops.

30 Years Ago — 1934

The people of Texas having adopted an amendment to the State Constitution combining the two offices into one, there will be one office under the name of Tax Assessor - Collector in Medina County after the first of the coming year.

40 Years Ago — 1924

Peaches are proving to be a profitable crop for Medina County farmers. Last month on the Henry Leinweber place, his orchard of eight-year old trees bore three crops. Last year he reported selling $30 worth of fresh fruit, canning over 200 quarts and having all the fresh fruit the family could eat.

50 Years Ago — 1914

The Texas legislature is convened in extraordinary session to deal with the present cotton situation. Cotton should be King in Texas. It must be if Texas is to prosper. Why depend upon a foreign merchant marine to transport raw cotton to foreign mills for manufacture? Why not manufacture all Texas - grown cotton in Texas?

Kilgore's Capitol Comments

By Joe M. Kilgore

LOGISTIC SUPPORT TO NATIONAL GUARD

Officials of the National Guard Association of Texas have expressed alarm over the possibility that logistic support to the Army's twenty-one low-priority National Guard and Army Reserve divisions might be withdrawn. Their concern resulted from a news story that the Secretary of Defense had issued a memorandum ordering such support stopped.

National Guard officials in Texas feared this move, if carried to completion, eventually would eliminate the 33rd (Texas) Infantry Division and the 49th (Lone Star) Armored Division as a force in the U. S. defense setup.

I asked the counsel for the Armed Services Committee, of which I am a member, to look into the matter. He has reported to me that the news story apparently was based on an internal working paper prepared by the Defense Secretary and sent to the Secretary of the Army, which asked only for a review of the logistic support program and justification for its continuance.

The Defense Department now advises that there is no present intention of withdrawing such support from these so-called low-priority units. In June, Deputy Secretary of Defense Vance approved the release of funds for a construction program for the Army reserve components. Of the twenty-one locations for new construction in the program, thirteen involved low-priority units.

ENCOURAGING TOURIST TRAVEL IN U. S.

Congress recently approved a House Joint Resolution authorizing and requesting the President to issue a proclamation designating this year and next as a period for the American people to "see the United States."

According to people who figure out such things, fifty-two per cent of the American people have never traveled more than 200 miles from their homes. The House resolution calls on private industry and private organizations concerned with travel to begin this year a nationwide effort to encourage Americans to see their own country. The resolution authorizes the President to appoint a national chairman to coordinate the efforts of private industry in forwarding the "See America" program.

This could be a movement of some importance in slowing down the outflow of gold from the United States. One of the most consistent deficit items in our international balance of payments has been in the area of tourist spending abroad. In fact, this item accounts for approximately half of our total annual dollar loss. It would be highly undesirable to restrict the freedom of the people to travel abroad, but if more of them can be encouraged to spend some of their vacations — and their vacation money — at home, our economy will benefit substantially.

PLENTY TO SEE

It would be possible to spend a lifetime traveling within the United States and not run out of marvelous sights to see and interesting things to do. Our country is as great in scenery as it is in other ways, and few of us have more than skimmed the surface of travel possibilities in the fifty states.

The other forty-nine can speak for themselves, and no doubt will, so it is to be hoped that Texas will not lag behind the parade. And to bring the matter right down to home, South Texas has plenty to offer the vacationing traveler, including an open gateway to Mexico. Maybe South Texans should start out by seeing South Texas! It's a big area and probably holds many surprises for most of us.

SILVER-SILVER — NOT EVERYWHERE

Our fiscal Lone Ranger is NOT a short changer. Whatever collectors do say. So, Congressional Tonto, get busy — and pronto!

It's "Ho! Ho! SILVER, away!" And in this era of the silver coin shortage, what happened in the House of Representatives to legislation providing for keeping 1964 printed on coins minted after 1964 is now history — and not small change!

The Treasury insists they needed this bill because: (1) Due to new coins being hoarded, the Mint has been unable to keep up with the needs of the business community; (2) That, in 1965, there would be less incentive to hold out coins stamped in 1964; and (3) That, if by mid-1965, the coin shortage has been eased, normal date stamping would be resumed.

An estimated 43 million coins are currently in circulation. This has been made possible by doubling production of coins during the past five years. Normally this amount would be sufficient to meet business demands.

But, this small change crisis is only a part of the House Banking and Currency Committee's overall study of the coin and silver situation in the United States. On the day the House acted to continue minting 1964 coins, one subcommittee was holding hearings on 12 bills affecting the silver and silver coin situation. Only speculators, however, should be affected by keeping the 1964 date on coins. For the real collector, this bill should help fill up the empty spaces in their coin books when normal stamping is resumed.

EQUAL REPRESENTATION

In an effort to preserve the rights of the states to apportion one house of their legislation on other than a population basis, if the people of the state want it that way, I appeared before the subcommittee on the House Judiciary Committee to support an apportionment resolution to maintain this historical position for the states after the Supreme Court's recent decision.

The Congress will likely act on this or a related measure before adjournment. Currently such action is the key to adjournment since a Senate filibuster is under way on the subject and the House Rules Committee has voted out a rule on a bill which would exclude cases involving apportionment or the reapportionment from appellate jurisdiction of the Supreme Court and the jurisdiction of Federal district courts. The purpose of this bill would be simply to give the states time to act on the proposed amendment to the Federal Constitution. Congress should act — or admit that the Supreme Court has taken over its lawmaking function.
